SUPERIOR COURT CONSTITUTIONAL COMMISSION CITY IN SURRESSION TIME DISTRICT EDUCATION SCAM AT

WORLD UNIVERSITY

Dear Sir,

The undersigned respectfully seeks your urgent intervention into matters pertaining to the distance education scam at his alma mater, the West Bengal National University of Juridical Sciences, Kolkata (WNUJS). Established under the WBNUJS Act, 1999, WBNUJS is blessed to have Your Lordship, the sitting Chief Justice of India, as its Chancellor.

By way of humble introduction, the undersigned is a Class of 2018 graduate of WBNUJS and was honoured to be elected to its apolitical student body, the Student Juridical Association (SJA) as the President for two terms (2016-17 and 2017-18). In my last few months at WBNUJS, very many grave administrative lapses came to light which were brought to the notice of WBNUJS' Executive Council (EC) and its Academic Council (AC) by the SJA. Almost a year on, I feel constrained to write to you regarding the captioned matter, which has aggravated instead of being resolved owing to regrettable administrative indifference.

BACKGROUND

On 10.05.2018, the SJA vide its written and physical representation before the Hon'ble AC's 32nd Meeting exposed a multi-crore scam concerning the illegal continuance of distance education courses by WBNUJS. SJA's detailed written representation [UR annexures thereto excluded] raised serious questions on the unholy alliance between the former Vice Chancellor, Pro~~Is~~wara; the then Registrar (Acting), Dr Sarara~~med~~; School of Distance & Mass Education (SDM) Director and veteran EC, AC, and General Council (C) member, Pro~~nir~~an Ma~~mdar~~; another EC, AC veteran, Assistant Professor, Ms Vaneeta~~atnai~~; and AC member, Pro~~Sandee~~a and certain private collaborators working purely for profit. The SJA exposed how the aforementioned employees misled WBNUJS' EC and AC into approving distance education courses (offline, online and hybrid) run by these private parties even though such courses were not recognised by the statutory regulator Distance Education Bureau, University Grants Commission (UGC D).

Based on the S~~o~~s written and oral submissions to the Hon~~ble~~ C~~o~~ssended distance education courses run by W~~o~~U~~S~~ in collaboration with private partners with immediate effect [UR].

This issue was again brought up by the SJA before the Hon'ble EC's 61st Meeting held two days later, i.e., on 12.05.2018 which had Hon'ble Justice Arun Kumar Mishra in attendance as the Hon'ble Chancellor's nominee [UR annexures thereto excluded]. The Hon'ble EC, led by Hon'ble Justice Mishra, ratified the 32nd AC's decision to suspend these courses and further instituted a two-member fact-finding inquiry into the various grave issues raised by the SJA, including the one on distance education [UR]. The said fact-finding inquiry comprised of the Hon'ble West Bengal Advocate General, Mr. Kishore Datta along with the Vice Chancellor (Acting), Hon'ble Justice (Retd.) Amit Talukdar.

In addition to the mandate of looking into a specific conflict of interest allegation against faculty member Ms. Vaneeta Patnai was given to a separate three-member Inquiry. Ms. Patnai is the self-styled Coordinator of the Centre for Financial and Regulatory Governance Studies (CFRGS) which is an unauthorised research centre in the University. CFRGS also came under the scrutiny by the aforesaid three-member Inquiry as per the specific directions of the 1st EC dated 2019-01-01. Ms. Vaneeta Patnai is also a Director in Management Directors (2019-01-01) which sought to run a certificate course in association with WOU. The 1st EC dated 2019-01-01 and the 2nd EC dated 2019-01-01. It is unclear if the proposed course actually took place; however, there are no records to show that she disclosed her association with Management Directors (2019-01-01) to the University at any point in time. In fact, she was very much present as a member in the said 1st EC and 2nd EC meetings collectively as (2019-01-01) and actively voted to make no mention of the conflict of interest when the issue over Management Directors (2019-01-01) was discussed.

Subsequently, the distance education scam became the common topic of investigation for another (albeit dedicated) Inquiry commissioned by the 62nd EC, comprising West Bengal Lokayukta, Hon'ble Justice (Retd.) Ashim Kumar Roy; NLSIU (Bangalore) Vice Chancellor, Prof. Venkata Rao; and the Hon'ble West Bengal Advocate General, Mr. Kishore Datta [2019-01-01]. Unfortunately, this Committee is yet to be convened by the University.

CLEAR AND DELIBERATE ILLEGALITIES

Brief History of Regulation

Soon after the establishment of the Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) in 1985, its erstwhile Distance Education Council (IGNOU DEC), in part, regulated Open and Distance Learning (ODL) nationwide. Subsequently, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Annamalai University v. Information & Tourism Deptt. [(2009) 4 SCC 590] held that regulations framed by the University Grants Commission (UGC) to determine standards of education are a part of the UGC Act, 1956 and are applicable to both open universities and formal universities (¶42). The IGNOU Act, 1985 was held to be in addition and not substitution of the UGC Act or the regulations/ norms framed thereunder (¶42). Differentiating between the power to regulate standards of education bestowed upon the UGC and the supplementary duty of the erstwhile IGNOU DEC to additionally regulate education imparted through the distance learning mode, the Court held and clarified that there can be no relaxation on the “basic things” necessary (referring to the relevant UGC regulations and norms) for conferment of a degree (¶¶40–41, 57–59). It is well-settled through a long line of subsequent Judgments pronounced by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India that Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) ought to mandatorily follow UGC regulations and norms.

Subsequent to the Prof. N.R. Madhava Menon Report on Distance Education, on 20.03.2013, the UGC issued a letter to Vice Chancellor of all Universities iterating that the IGNOU DEC had been dissolved, and the UGC had been entrusted with “all the regulatory responsibilities” of the ODL education system by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India (MHRD) [20.03.2013UR 1].

On [REDACTED], the UGC issued a notification adopting the ‘Guidelines of DEC on Minimum Requirements for Recognition of ODL Institutions’ (DEC Guidelines) of the erstwhile IGNOU DEC. It further stated that the said notification shall cease to have force upon coming into force of any prospective UGC guidelines on the subject matter [REDACTED].

On [REDACTED], a public notice was issued by the UGC advising students desirous of pursuing education through ODL mode to check the status of approval/recognition of programmes of Universities/Institutions on the UGC website at www.ugc.ac.in/deb. Such prospective students were further advised to not take admission in any Study Centre offering the course outside its “Territorial Jurisdiction” and Universities/Institutions were advised to operate themselves within their respective territorial jurisdiction only in accordance with the relevant UGC norms [REDACTED].

On [REDACTED], the UGC issued another public notice reiterating the abovementioned contents from its earlier public notice dated [REDACTED] and adding [REDACTED]:

*“It has come to the notice of the UGC that some Universities/Deemed to be Universities/Institutions are offering programs through Open & Distance Learning (ODL) mode in gross violation of the policy of the UGC/erstwhile DEC. These Universities/Deemed to be Universities/Institutions are issuing misleading advertisements that their programmes are recognized by the UGC. Students, parents and public in general, are hereby, informed that the list of the recognized institutions (alongwith the courses), which are permitted to offer programmes through distance mode is posted on the UGC’s website www.ugc.ac.in/deb. Besides, it may also be noted that no institution is permitted to offer Diploma/Bachelor /Master level programme under ODL mode in Engineering & Technology. Also, UGC has not accorded recognition to any university /institution to offer 'online' programmes.

Subsequently, on [REDACTED], UGC again clarified the non-permissibility of online courses, including hybrid courses with online examination [REDACTED]:

"As you are aware that while seeking recognition for the years 2015-16 and 2016-17, the institutions submitted an affidavit agreeing to various conditions including that "no online programme leading to award of degree/ certification shall be offered by the University/ institution until a policy is framed and approved by UGC in this regard".

However, it has been noted by UGC that some institutions/universities which have been approved by UGC to impart education through open and distance learning mode are offering to conduct 'Online Examinations'.

The matter was considered and it was observed that creditable online examination system for large number of learners involves a lot of complexity of managerial issues, availability of reliable and robust alternative networks connecting all examination centres, highly secured ICT systems; development of difficulty level based huge question banks etc., requiring heavy initial expenditure and running costs. It was also observed that so far, UGC has not laid down any standard parameters for holding the examinations 'Online'.

It is therefore, requested that your university/institution should not conduct 'Online Examinations' until such time that the UGC Guidelines are formulated and made mandatory applicable."

(emphasis supplied)

On [REDACTED], UGC notified the UGC (Open and Distance Learning) Regulations, 2017 (ODL Regulations) in supersession of the DEC Guidelines. The said ODL Regulations were set to be operationalised for the year 2018-19 [REDACTED].

Later, on [REDACTED], UGC notified special guidelines viz. the UGC (Online Courses or Programmes) Regulations, 2018 (Online Regulations), patterned on the same lines as the earlier ODL Regulations, to specifically regulate online ODL courses [REDACTED]. Explanation to Regulation 6(3) reads:

“Explanation.– For removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that prior to these regulations, the commission has not given recognition for an Online Course or Programme to any Higher Educational Institution.”

(emphasis supplied)

Therefore until the suspension of online courses by WUSCs and

Meeting dated 2023-09-12 no longer online courses offered courses were permitted under the UoC Oct 2023 only online ODU courses were required to comply with DDC guidelines where specific approval from DDC was required for each course taken thereafter from 2023 onwards a course specific approval was required under the same DDC guidelines by UoC DDC

□ recent UOC notice dated 2023-07-10 states that violations of UOC Disciplinary Regulations can result in revocation of the UOC sanction or regular courses as well. While OSR Hyderabad decided new Definitions of University and U Odisa Contact secretory I and II autonomy from UOC the same comply with the aforementioned faculty and staff members with private partners as WOUOS at a very realistic cost its UOC affiliation and shutting down. It is same that these employees sought to sever UOU's very existence as an academic institution. Moreover, UOU

Persistent Violation by WBNUJS

UGC DEB's Right to Information query (RTI) response dated 08.03.2019 [REDACTED] to my online RTI bearing No. UGCOM/R/2019/50506/1 dated 22.01.2019 [REDACTED] conclusively establishes that WBNUJS never had any approval from the erstwhile IGNOU DEC or later the UGC DEB:

"Reply:- 1,2,4. The National University of Jurdical Sciences, Kolkata (NUJS), West Bengal is not recognised by DEB-UGC or erstwhile DEC-IGNOU to offer programmes through distance education mode.

It is evident that while WBNUJS had UGC's sanction to offer undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral degrees in law under regular mode, it never had any approvals from the erstwhile IGNOU DEC or the UGC DEC to offer merely online ODL courses stated earlier online and hybrid courses were never allowed. Yet WBNUJS apparently offered online online and hybrid ODL courses in collaboration with various private partners since 2000. Since WBNUJS could not have been a part of such collaborations without due approval from the erstwhile IGNOU DEC or the UGC DEC, WBNUJS had started these courses illegally in the first place.

As of today, WBNUJS is in no position to obtain due approvals for ODL and online courses any time soon in view of various requirements under the extant UGC Regulations, including the requirement of NAAC accreditation and a specific NAAC score. WBNUJS is not NAAC accredited and is far from submitting a meaningful application.

Acute Reputation Loss and Dilution of Classroom Instruction for Regular Students

It is unclear why Prof. P. Ishwara Bhat; Dr. Sarfaraz Ahmed Khan; Prof. Anirban Mazumdar; Ms. Vaneeta Patnaik; and Prof. Sandeepa Bhat persisted in sheltering these illegal collaborations with private partners. Their deliberate acts of obfuscation and institutional cover-ups have left the University vulnerable to suffer reputational and financial losses and a very real risk of losing UGC affiliation and shutting down. Illustratively, an email forwarded by Dr. Anirban Chakraborty, WBNUJS Assistant Professor (currently on lien to Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur where he joined as an Associate Professor) to all faculty members, and specifically Prof. Anirban Mazumdar, Prof. Sandeepa Bhat and Prof. P. Ishwara Bhat on [REDACTED] is noteworthy in this regard, and states [REDACTED]:

"I have mentioned in the past that some profit oriented entrepreneurs are exploiting WBNUJS brand name and the agreements require to be immediately stopped. Now I am attaching public queries. If the matter is ignored further, I am sure that it is not far, when WBNUJS will be dragged to Court for this. In public interest and for the sake of WBNUJS brand reputation it is my appeal please act on this matter with some urgency or the University will suffer permanent damage of its reputation."

(emphasis supplied)

A comment by one of my classmates from Class of 2019 (on condition of anonymity), who was regularly engaged in drafting study material or leaders, for certain online courses is reproduced hereunder verbatim:

"In the past few years, WBNUJS has been churning out distance learning programs at an unprecedented pace. These programs are being turned up on any and every topic. While the preparation of course material is outsourced to the students, it is often done without clear guidelines or even a broad structure. For course material, students often collect legal principles from a wide variety of sources, including random blog posts on the internet. While some of it is paraphrased, most of it is directly copied from these sources. In most cases, these collections are approved by the faculty advisor despite prime facie errors. The resultant course material is an undecipherable mesh of legal provisions riddled with inaccuracies. Given the state of the course material, the people opting for the Distance Education Programs from WBNUJS are much better off with a simple Google search."

Yet, the quality of the material is commensurate with the monetary compensation awarded to students for drafting them. Compensation ranges from INR 3000 to INR 10,000 depending upon the amount of assignment undertaken. From personal experience, one accurate and comprehensive module within the course material requires at least 100 hours of cumulative work including researching, drafting and editing. Typically, the compensation for one entire module is INR 5,000. This translates to less than INR 50 per hour. Part-time employment at the nearby KFC offers higher compensation.

Further, total compensation awarded for preparation of the course material is INR 50,000 - INR 60,000. Fee charged for the course is INR 35,000 - 50,000 per Learner. Therefore, it appears the entire business model for the WBNUJS Distance Education program is -

Step 1 - Setup a course at minimal cost irrespective of quality.

Step 2 - Leverage WBNUJS name to charge the maximum amount from gullible people.

Step 3 - Once people discover the shoddy quality of the course, create a new course on a new topic.

In my opinion, WBNUJS should be prohibited from offering Distance Education courses until such time that its quality can be guaranteed to avoid further reputational loss and potential litigation against the University.”

The esteemed First W^oU^sS University Review Commission^oo^oo (URC) comprised Pro^oMo^oan o^oa^o (Chairperson), Former Director of National Judicial Academy, Bhopal, and National Law School of India University, Bengaluru; Pro^oo^oai^oan M^osta^oa (Member), Vice Chancellor, NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad, Telengana; and Pro^oo^oai^oit Man^ootra Mem^oer, former Head of Physics Department and Dean, Faculty of Sciences, University of Jammu, Jammu & Kashmir. The URC expressed serious concerns with respect to dilution of classroom instruction for regular students on account of these ODL courses in their Report:

“Benchmark 1: Catalyzing Academic Innovation and Academic Excellence

C. (Academic) Value Addition (to students).

viii. Quality of academic governance systems (including appeal, grievance and redress mechanisms).

The University has introduced more than 6 PG Diploma Programmes in the last five years. This has however not been accompanied by increase in faculty strength. This has resulted in increase in teaching load for Faculty. In fact, some faculty Members have spent more than 80 teaching hours in a year just on multiple diploma programmes. This has severely cut time available for research and also undermined the quality of teaching due to paucity of time for preparation. Therefore, it is essential that faculty size be increased to meet the teaching workload of the PG Diploma Programmes and that new PG Diploma Programmes be introduced only after consideration of available faculty for the programmes.

Benchmark 6: Quality of Management and Administration

Management Failure

132. The core issue facing WBNUJS today is a failure of management and administration of a very large scale. The Commission received a flood of complaints. Some of the complaints received are set out here to illustrate the depth of the management failure we encountered (many of the points below are noted elsewhere in the Report as well).

- Teacher-student ratios are at a historic low and students are not receiving adequate individual attention.
- Even though there is a severe shortage of faculty, new programmes are being started without adequate academic resources.
- The undergraduate programme is suffering from grievous neglect.

Part 5: Summary of Recommendations Submitted to the Hon'ble Chancellor

Enhance Faculty Strength to 80, Improve Student-Teacher Ratio

7. We recommend that a plan be developed urgently to increase the WBNUJS faculty size to a strength of at least 80, appropriately distributed between various levels of seniority as needed for teaching and research. The faculty requirement should be drawn up based on training and research strategies to be drawn up by the Teaching Dean and a Dean be in charge of Strategy and Planning.

8. It is essential that faculty size be increased to meet the teaching workload of the PG Diploma Programmes and that new PG Diploma Programmes be introduced only after consideration of available faculty for the programmes.”

THE REAL ARCHITECTS OF FRAUD ON THE EC AND THE AC

Most recently on 18.02.2019, the SJA gained access to a large cache of GC, EC, AC, FC and erstwhile Standing Committee minutes and agenda notes. A perusal of these documents evidences that there was a deliberate, concerted attempt on part of the aforesaid employees to mislead the statutory governing bodies of the University into providing approvals without any proper disclosure of information or even the basic law governing the implications of (lacking) such approvals. It also appears that the relevant statutory bodies, i.e., the Hon’ble GC, the EC, the AC and the Finance Committee (□C) were subsequently kept in dark about the illegalities which allowed the continuance of all these courses till 10.05.2018. I have tabulated references to governing body minutes (all finally available online at nujs.edu) hereunder for Your Lordship’s convenient perusal:

Certificate Course on GST	Information unavailable	29 th AC dt. 22.04.17 and 55 th EC dt. 15.07.17 VC – Prof. Ishwara Bhat Registrar – Dr Saranya Parameshwaran Course Leader – Dr Sanjay Kumar

The aforesaid information clearly reveals that Prof. Ishwara Bhat accelerated what was initially started by Prof. M.P. Singh. Private partners such iPladers, Dillon's Kidney, Effulgent Educators LLP et al. were offered sweetheart deals under the watch of the former Vice Chancellor, Prof. Ishwara Bhat; the then Registrars (Acting), Dr. R. Parameswaran and Dr Saranya Parameshwaran; School of Distance & Mass Education (SDM) Director and veteran EC, AC and GC member, Prof. Anirban Mazumdar; another EC, AC veteran, Assistant Professor, Ms Vaneeta Patnaik, and AC member, Prof. Sandeepa Bhattacharya.

Strangely, if these partners such as iPladers were mere technical providers, how can 70-60% share be justified for them? It raises troubling questions concerning who negotiated and vetted these contracts on behalf of WBNUJS? Alternatively, if organisations like iPladers were preparing original, copyrighted material and conducting the entire testing process, it raises even graver questions regarding the dilution of academic standards and outsourcing of instruction by WBNUJS.

Prof. P. Ishwara Bhat (as the then Vice Chancellor); Prof. Anirban Mazumdar (as EC and AC veteran and also as SDME Director); Dr. R. Parameshwaran (as Acting Registrar previously); Dr. Sarfaraz Ahmed Khan (as Acting Registrar later and ~~the self-styled college director of SDM alone without any institutional mandate;~~ Ms. Vaneeta Batnai (as EC and AC veteran); and Prof. Sandeepa Bhat acted in concert to engineer ~~an institutional cover~~ that ensured the distance education courses ran illegally without any scrutiny from EC or the AC; till the SJA exposed the scam in the 32nd AC held on 10.05.2018.

In 2017, I had written for The Statesman analysing the trend of student unrests at other National Law Universities [UR]. One of the underlying problems that I had identified was the centralisation of power in the hands of a select few within the University administration and the pragmatic impossibility for esteemed external members on statutory bodies to micromanage affairs of the University. In such circumstances, there was good faith reliance on the internal members/ employees/ faculty members, who double up as members of these statutory governing bodies, to lay necessary information before the University authorities in the agenda files and actively participate in discussions on contentious internal issues. It is pertinent that the statutory bodies discussed the requisite approvals multiple times. Basic statutory compliances are a matter that the aforesaid internal members of these various statutory bodies C and C were well placed (having always known about their mandatory nature) to implement adequately. However it appears that the aforesaid present and former employees of the University chose to deliberately divert information on the requisite statutory compliances to their own benefit or otherwise.

How did statutory bodies of the University, comprising a panel of legal luminaries, not understand that WBNUJS never had any approval from the erstwhile IGNOU DEC and its successor, UGC DEB? WBNUJS also required course-specific approvals from the UGC DEB whether the courses were run directly or in partnership with private bodies, including non-governmental organisations. As elucidated earlier, it did not matter whether the courses were offered in online, offline, hybrid mode.

THE SHAMEFUL CULTURE OF INSTITUTIONAL COVER-UPS

Unless Justice Talukdar and Registrar (Acting) Ms. Sikha Sen are keen to be a sequel of Prof. Bhat's reign of maladministration and institutional cover-ups. Why are the aforesaid present and former employees being treated with kid gloves and to whose bene it

For instance, I had filed four Right to Information applications to WBNUJS on 25.01.2019 [UR]. In response to the one pertaining to captioned subject, Mr. Pritwish Saha, the Public Information Officer (IO) and a "veteran dodger of Right to Information applications", has continued with his policy of evasion. Despite several telephonic reminders and reasoned requests, he would neither give proper answers that have already been acknowledged by the 62nd EC and clearly made evident from the governing bodies' records already uploaded on the University and SJA websites nor made available any correspondences sent to and received from the aforesaid employees. This response dated [REDACTED] was a monumental institutional embarrassment for a premier law school WBNUJS state [REDACTED]. It is distressing to note that he is being supported institutionally by Registrar [REDACTED] Ms. Sujata Sen and SDM Director [REDACTED] Anirban Mazumdar. On 21.02.2019, after much request and persistent follow-ups, Mr. Saha separately emailed me a scrap of paper that looks like anything but an authentic correspondence actually sent out by former Registrar (Acting), Dr. R. Parmeshwaran to the UGC DEB [REDACTED]. It does not even have a reference number! When I asked Mr. Saha for the annexures to the said “application” allegedly sent to the UGC DEB, he evasively responded “that is not available, it will be difficult”. The information provided earlier in this letter in tabular form was not provided by Mr. Saha vide his response, despite express requests pointing to them. I specifically mentioned minutes of the 62nd EC ([REDACTED]), which expressly mention answers to some of the questions. On being persistent, he redirected me to Registrar [REDACTED] Ms. Sujata Sen. I responded back every time telling Mr. Saha that it were to speak to Ms. Sen during my RTI's original disclosure it will make my first speech before her symbolic court to no avail.

The role of Assistant Professors, Ms. Vaneeta Patnaik and Ms. Sujata Roy appears to be equally suspect; the 63rd EC had previously tasked them to assist Prof. Anirban Mazumdar, SDME Director, to respond to all distance education related queries ([REDACTED]). Thanks to Justice Talukdar and Registrar Sen’s policy of doing nothing (as doing something), WBNUJS has eight writ petitions against it (two have been dismissed last week vide a Judgment of Calcutta High Court dated 01.03.2019) and an arbitration matter against WBNUJS in Calcutta and Delhi High Courts on the distance education matter. These ill-handled litigations have caused continuous and immense financial and reputational loss to my beloved alma mater, WBNUJS.

To add insult to injury, Prof. Anirban Mazumdar audaciously refused to respond to the clueless distance education students' queries regarding the suspension of distance and online education courses by simply citing "personal reasons"? Prof. Mazumdar and relevant others refuse to accept what has been sworn on Affidavit by WBNUJS before the Hon'ble Calcutta High Court – that these courses were illegally started and run; till SJA effected a stop. How can Prof. Anirban Mazumdar be allowed to continue on the University's GC, EC and AC – that too way out of turn (as highlighted in ~~UR~~)? How can Ms. Vaneeta Patnaik be allowed to continue on the AC? How can Prof. Sandeepa Bhat continue on the AC? How can Dr. Bikramjeet De, a member of the erstwhile internal Distance Education Council (DEC), which greenlighted quite a few of these illegal courses and presently a member of the EC, be allowed to continue?

Justice Talukdar and Registrar Sen have offered no explanation for their deliberate inaction despite clear evidence against the guilty employees named above. Why have they not sought explanations from Prof. Anirban Mazumdar; Ms. Vaneeta Patnaik (on her directorship in Effulgent Educators LLP and the unauthorised CFRGS, which she claims to head); and Prof. Sandeepa Bhat till date? Soc disearthenin conduct rom the University's to ocial's rees o t e very sameccotre ocorrortion and institotionalcoveroos that ave caused student unrest in the last My ordorease le end it Following are my humble:

□R□Y□RS

Former Vice Chancellor, Prof. P. Ishwara Bhat; SDME Director, Prof. Anirban Mazumdar; former Registrars (Acting) Dr. R. Parameshwaran and then Dr. Sarfaraz Ahmed Khan; Assistant Professor, Ms. Vaneeta Patnaik; and Prof. Sandeepa Bhat are squarely liable for the aforesaid illegalities. They sought to not only tarnish WBNUJS' reputation, but also to risk its very recognition as an academic institution.

It is my humble plea that:

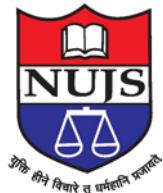

- (a) these individuals be departmentally punished appropriately for wilful and gross dereliction of duty and professional misconduct;
- (b) they along with other gravely incompetent employees such as Dr. Bikramjeet De and Assistant Registrar (Academics), Mr. Tapas Bhattacharya ought to be permanently banned from all University governing bodies (including, but not limited to, GC, EC, AC and FC);
- (c) Prof. P. Ishwara Bhat; Prof. Anirban Mazumdar; Dr. R. Parameshwaran; Dr. Sarfaraz Ahmed Khan; Ms. Vaneeta Patnaik and Prof. Sandeepa Bhat be directed to financially indemnify WBNUJS for all its direct and indirect expenses, which are a result of the distance education scam perpetrated by them; and
- (d) unequivocal directions be issued to the University for their prosecution to the full extent of the law according to the appropriate provisions of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

Forever indebted for your invaluable time and kind attention.

Yours faithfully,

The agenda notes of this, the 32nd meeting of the Academic Council, seem to deliberately suppress/misstate many crucial facts on this agenda item. Before delving into the assertion of this suppression, we must refresh our memory on the correct and full chronology of events so far:

On ~~May~~ ~~2016~~ Ms. Shreyashi Ray of the 2016 B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) batch submitted her Child Rights and Law written submission/project to the Assistant Registrar (Academics) (~~OR Academics~~) and Ms. Ruchira Goswami (~~the subject teacher~~). [~~UR~~ ~~UR~~]

On ~~May~~ ~~2016~~ she informed the relevant authorities about the change in her contact email address to shreyashi.ray@nlu-delhi.ac.in and clarified that she would no longer be using her previous Gmail/nujs.edu email accounts any further. [~~UR~~ ~~UR~~]

Thereafter, she met the relevant subject teacher physically and informed her that she had submitted her project; and told her the NLU Delhi email address that she had forwarded her project from.

On ~~November~~ ~~2016~~ (2011-2016 batch convocation ceremony); she came to NUJS with the reasonable expectation that she would be awarded her degree certificate along with the rest of her batchmates. She was informed that the marks obtained by her in 'Child Rights and Law' have not been submitted to the AR (Academics) and NUJS would not be awarding her her degree certificate on that day. She was asked to re-send her project.

On ~~November~~ ~~2016~~ she re-sent her Child Rights and Law written submission/ project to AR (Academics) and the subject teacher for their convenience. [~~UR~~ ~~UR~~]

On ~~March~~ ~~2017~~ the AR (Academics) communicated her results for 'Child Rights and Law' to her, with a break-down of marks for every component. [~~UR~~ ~~UR~~]

On ~~June~~ ~~2017~~ the AR (Academics) sent her a scanned copy of a faulty provisional certificate which incorrectly stated '2017' as the year of graduation. [~~UR~~ ~~UR~~]

On ~~June~~ ~~2017~~ she applied to the then Vice Chancellor, Prof. P. Ishwara Bhat (~~the then VC~~) to effect a formal change in her provisional certificate because her year of graduation was incorrect, and this mistake was caused solely due to the delay, negligence, and irresponsible conduct on NUJS administration's part, with absolutely no fault of hers. As a result, the then VC agreed that the year should be changed to 2016 and directed appropriate action. [REDACTED]

On February 2017 after multiple efforts on her part, AR (Academics) sent her a scanned copy of the corrected version of her provisional certificate dated August 16, 2017 and signed by the Registrar (Acting); which stated 2016 as her year of graduation.

[REDACTED]

On January 2018 she went to NUJS to collect her final degree certificate after completing the official formalities and payments. She then noticed that her final degree certificate says that her year of graduation is 2017. Not only was this a result of grave and wilful negligence on part of NUJS (there is a mismatch between her provisional and final certificate), but it was also a source of gross injustice and harassment for her. She immediately spoke with the AR (Academics) since the then VC was not available on campus at the time, and she was promised by the AR (Academics) that a corrected certificate (which says that she graduated in 2016) will be sent to the Hon'ble Chancellor, the Chief Justice of India for his Lordship's signature and subsequently be couriered to her.

On January 2018 she sent an email to the then VC with details of this communication.

[REDACTED]

On January 2018 she emailed the Registrar (Acting) to seek updates on the matter; she received no response. [REDACTED]

On January 2018 she contacted the then VC's office again to seek updates, and she was informed that the then VC would be meeting the AR (Academics) regarding this issue. She followed this up over telephonic communication after a week with the AR (Academics), and was again informed that the promised process was still underway.

On February 2018 she received an email saying that the then VC had directed on February 20, 2018 that this change could not be effected. The alleged grounds cited in the email were that she had not submitted her project before the 2016 convocation (an allegation which is completely absurd and incorrect), and that her results for Child Rights and Law were published in 2017 (which was occasioned due to delays solely on part of the NUJS administration/the concerned subject teacher or both). [□□□□UR□ □]

On Marc□ □□□□□ she wrote to the then VC once again, placing all facts and evidence on record, requesting him to look into the matter and take an appropriate decision. [□□□□UR□ □]

On □□ri□□□□□□ she was forced to take leave from work and travel to Kolkata from New Delhi, to make one final attempt at rectifying the issue. The then VC was not available until April 6, 2018 to meet her.

On □□ri□□□□□□ she again put forward the entire issue and all abovementioned details before the then VC, the Registrar (Acting), and the AR (Academics). Although initially she was told that the matter would be resolved on that very day, and the Hon'ble Chief Justice of India will be sent a letter intimating the facts of the matter and requesting his Lordship's signature on the corrected certificate; the mentioned office-bearers deferred the decision till the next Academic Council meeting. The AR (Academics) sent her an email to formally communicate this deference. [□□□□UR□ □]

On □□ri□□□□□□ she presented her case before the Hon'ble Executive Council (□C) during its meeting. The Hon'ble EC unanimously agreed that administrative delays ought not to hamper her prospects when there is no fault on her part. They orally recommended presenting the matter before this Council on an urgent basis, so that the year of graduation on her degree certificate can be changed to '2016' as soon as possible.

Having stated this, it becomes amply clear that there is an attempt to suppress the following crucial facts from being duly informed to this Council pending a decision on the issue. The following statement in the relevant agenda notes clearly shows such an attempt:

"Ms. Shreyoshi Ray could not be conferred degree during the Convocation as she could not clear one of her subjects "Child Rights & Law" – taught by Ms. R. Goswami.

Subsequently she cleared her subject of Child Rights and Law in March 2017 (result received from the course teacher on 10.03.2017 and it was published on 10.03.2017 - attached as Annexure 2)."

This statement gives an impression that, without any fault on part of anyone whatsoever, somehow Ms. Ray managed to “clear” the paper only almost a year after her last semester’s examinations. This is entirely incorrect because:

first, Ms. Ray had submitted her written submission/project on ~~July 2016~~, and effectively completed all the components of ‘Child Rights and Law’. ~~UR~~ clearly shows that the then VC accepted that the her year of graduation, i.e., ~~2016~~ must be considered as the ‘year’ for “clearing” the requisite papers. However, to our utter shock, this relevant date, July 15, 2016, finds no mention whatsoever in the agenda note presented to the Academic Council for this meeting. Rule 38, Academic and Examinations Rules, 2012 (~~Academic Rules~~) stipulates that the concerned subject teacher shall submit the full and final result “~~within one month~~” to the AR (Academics) section. This ~~newline~~ has been conveniently omitted; second Ms. Ray completed all the components of ‘Child Rights and Law’ in due time and well before November 12, 2016 when the convocation ceremony for her batch (2011-2016) was held; third, after she was denied her degree certificate on the 2016 convocation ceremony, she re-sent her written submission/project on November 16, 2016. Even after this, her results were published only on March 10, 2017. Therefore, there was a delay of about 8 months since the original submission, and 4 months since she re-sent her written submission, until her results were published by the AR (Academics) on March 10, 2017; fourth, her Child Rights and Law results which were sent to her by the AR (Academics) on March 10, 2017, with a breakdown of all the assessment components, clarified that even without the written submission/project component, she had scored fifty (50) marks and hence scored pass marks for the course. In effect, Ms. Ray deserved at least her provisional degree certificate even without consideration of her written submission/project component as the said certificate merely certifies that she “has successfully passed all 50 subjects”. Yet, this provisional degree certificate too was unexplainably denied to her till ~~last~~ ~~March 2017~~.

fifth, the year of passing on her provisional degree certificate is stated as 2016 with due approval from the then VC, because the 8 month delay in the publication of results was a result of solely the administration's negligence. However, while sending final certificates to be signed by the Hon'ble Chief Justice of India and awarded at the 2017 annual convocation ceremony, the AR (Academics) failed to ensure that her final degree certificate mentions '2016', and not '2017', as her year of graduation.

Therefore, it is abundantly clear that the final degree certificate awarded to Ms. Ray should state '2016' as her year of graduation, since her Child Rights and Law result was published in March 2017 solely due to grave negligence on part of the administration. Owing to the fact that her degree certificate currently states 2017 as her year of graduation whereas she started her LLB course in 2016 and started working as a professional in 2017 she has been hindered from applying to institutes offering education or enrolling as an advocate. The current certificate is likely to mislead selection committees or future employers into thinking that she required 2 years to complete a 1-year course. Unless the relevant change is effected on her degree certificate at the earliest, she will face adverse consequences in terms of career and further education prospects due to no fault on her part.

We, therefore, request that this Council resolve in favour of Ms. Ray so that appropriate steps, including the correction of records, are initiated on an urgent basis, and she is awarded the corrected final degree certificate – signed by both the Hon'ble Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor – at the earliest without further jeopardy to her career prospects.

A larger problem?

This instance also points to the larger problem of this University administration's terrible record at publication of results, and its complete disregard for Rule 38 of Academic Rules. In the past few semesters, the SJA has persistently pointed out the seemingly unsolvable problem of respective subject teachers not complying with this Rule 38.

An illustrative chart of the outgoing 2018 batch's result delays is reproduced below:

Semester	Last date of end of semester examination	Date on which results were declared (DD/MM/YY)	Number of Days
Winter (Semester IX)	30.11.2017	17.01.2018 (Part Results only)	49 days

*The result for Socio-ology student Ms Raja Oswami was declared on 10.01.2015 a day before the commencement of the Winter Semester examinations and over a 100 days late.

The first-ever University Review Commission report (URC), authored by Prof. Dr. Mohan Rao (Chairperson), Former Director of National Judicial Academy, Bhopal, and National Law School of India University, Bengaluru; Prof. Dr. Rajan Maitra (Member), Vice Chancellor, NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad, Telengana; and Prof. Dr. Manotra (Member), former Head of Physics Department and Dean, Faculty of Sciences,

University of Jammu, Jammu, also expressed deep concern regarding this:

"Examination results are not declared in time. Even convocations are delayed. The 2017 batch will only get their degrees by December 2017. The administration complains that the cause of delay is that faculty does not hand in corrected answer scripts. They plead helplessness to correct this."

To address Ms. Ray's issue and solve this larger problem so as to avoid similar unexplainable and unjust situations in future, we list out the reliefs sought by us in our REYRS listed at the end of this petition

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION DISTANCE EDUCATION COURSES AT

A Brief History of Regulation

The establishment of Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) is considered to be a landmark development in the field of distance education in the country (Report of the Committee to Suggest Measures to Regulate the Standards of Education Being Imparted through Distance Mode – chaired by Prof. N R Madhava Menon, founding Vice Chancellor of this institution and submitted to the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, p. 12: NRM Report on Distance Education). Earlier, IGNOU's erstwhile Distance Education Council (DEC) did, in part, regulate distance education through online mode.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Annamalai University v. Information & Tourism Deptt. [(2009) 4 SCC 590] held that regulations framed by the University Grants Commission (UGC) to determine standards of education are a part of the UGC Act, 1956 and are applicable to both open universities and formal universities (¶42). The IGNOU Act, 1985 was held to be in addition and not substitution of UGC Act or the regulations/norms framed thereunder (¶42). Differentiating between the power to regulate standards of education bestowed upon the UGC and the supplementary duty of the erstwhile DEC of IGNOU to additionally regulate education imparted through the distance learning mode, the Court held and clarified that there can be no relaxation on the “basic things” necessary (referring to the relevant UGC regulations and norms) for conferment of a degree (¶¶ 40 – 41, 57 – 59).

Progressive Development of Present UGC Regulation

Subsequent to the NRM Report on Distance Education, on May 2000, the UGC issued a letter to Vice Chancellor of all Universities iterating that the DEC of IGNOU had been dissolved, and the UGC had been entrusted with “all the regulatory responsibilities” of the Open and Distance Learning (ODL) education system by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India (MHRD). [Circular No]

On One May 2000, the UGC issued a notification adopting the ‘Guidelines of DEC on Minimum Requirements for Recognition of ODL Institutions’ (DEC Guidelines) of the erstwhile DEC. It further stated that the said notification shall cease to have force upon coming into force of any prospective UGC guidelines on the subject matter. [UR]

On September 2006, the UGC sent another letter to all Vice Chancellors prescribing guidelines for development grants from UGC for distance education programmes for both State Open Universities (SOUs) and Distance Education Institutions (DEIs) of formal Universities. [UR]

On October 2006, a public notice was issued by the UGC advising students desirous of pursuing education through ODL mode to check the status of approval/recognition of programmes of Universities/Institutions on the UGC website at www.ugc.ac.in/deb. Such prospective students were further advised to not take admission in any Study Centre offering the course outside its “Territorial Jurisdiction” and advised Universities/Institutions to operate themselves within their respective territorial jurisdiction only in accordance with the relevant UGC norms. [UR]

On January 2007, the UGC issued another public notice reiterating the abovementioned contents from its earlier public notice dated October 2006, in addition to referring back to an earlier public notice dated June 2006, concerning UGC’s policy on territorial jurisdiction in line with the dictum of the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India, as laid down in the 2005 judgment in Prof. Yashpal v. State of Chhattisgarh. [UR]

In May 2007, the UGC initiated a second phase of applications for UGC recognition of Institutions/Universities offering education through ODL mode in the prescribed pro forma by May 2007. [UR]

On August 2007, UGC sent another set of letters to UGC approved institutions offering education through ODL mode. While many other National Law Universities are on this list of recipient institutions interestingly US remains curiously missing. Another letter was sent on October 2007 instructing Universities to display information regarding 14 heads of information of ODL programmes stated therein on respective University websites within 15 days. [UR]

On May 2008, the abovementioned progress culminated in the notification of UGC

(Open and Distance Learning) Regulations, 2017 (Re~~gulations~~) and supersession of the DEC Guidelines. The Regulations were set to be operationalised for the year 2018-19.

[~~UGC~~URS ~~2018~~]

Subsequently, on ~~February 2018~~, UGC (Open and Distance Learning) Second Amendment Regulations, 2018 were notified. [~~UGC~~UR ~~2018~~]

Recently, on ~~March 2018~~, the UGC issued yet another public notice, and its operational parts are reproduced hereinunder: [~~UGC~~UR ~~2018~~]

"UGC invites online applications from all eligible Higher Educational Institutions (HEIs) for offering ODL programmes from the academic session beginning in July, 2018. The online application submission date for the academic session beginning in July, 2018 is 31st May 2018. The duly certified hard copies of the application submitted through online mode along with annexures shall reach UGC (DEB) office at 35, Feroze Shah Road, New Delhi-110001 within 10 working days of submission of online application. For further details/updates, HEIs are requested to visit the UGC-DEB website at <https://www.ugc.ac.in/deb/>

It may be noted that HEIs, who have earlier submitted applications for recognition of their ODL programmes for the academic session beginning in July, 2018, during July-October 2017 are required to apply afresh. In this regard, UGC has also issued a detailed Public Notice vide F. No. 74-8/2017 (DEB-IV) dated 21.02.2018 which can be accessed at https://www.ugc.ac.in/pdfnews/5667049_ODL-Public-Notice.pdf.

The State of ODL Programmes in the University and the Unjust Allocation of its Burden on Full-time Students

An email forwarded by Dr. Anirban Chakraborty, Assistant Professor (currently on lien to Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur where he joined as an Associate Professor) to all faculty members, and specifically Prof. (Dr.) Anirban Mazumdar, Prof. (Dr.) Sandeepa Bhat and the then VC on ~~last~~ is noteworthy in this regard, and states [~~UGC~~UR ~~2018~~]:

"I have mentioned in the last that some profit oriented entrepreneurs are entering NUJS brand name and the agreements require to be immediately stopped now I am attacking the academic series but the matter is ignored rather I am sure that it is not a problem NUJS will be directed to Court for this In academic interest and for the sake of NUJS brand reputation it is my appeal please act on this matter with some urgency or the University will suffer permanent damage on its reputation”

A recent comment by a present student (on condition of anonymity) who is regularly engaged by relevant faculty members for drafting study material for some such ODL programmes is reproduced verbatim hereinunder:

“In the past few years, NUJS has been churning out distance learning programs at an unprecedented pace. These programs are being turned up on any and every topic. While the preparation of course material is outsourced to the students, it is often done without clear guidelines or even a broad structure. For course material, students often collect legal principles from a wide variety of sources, including random blog posts on the internet. While some of it is paraphrased, most of it is directly copied from these sources. In most cases, these collections are approved by the faculty advisor despite prime facie errors. The resultant course material is an undecipherable mesh of legal provisions riddled with inaccuracies. Given the state of the course material, the people opting for the Distance Education Programs from NUJS are much better off with a simple Google search.

Yet, the quality of the material is commensurate with the monetary compensation awarded to students for drafting them. Compensation ranges from INR 3000 to INR 10,000 depending upon the amount of assignment undertaken. From personal experience, one accurate and comprehensive module within the course material requires at least 100 hours of cumulative work including researching, drafting and editing. Typically, the compensation for one entire module is INR 5,000. This translates to less than INR 50 per hour. Part-time employment at the nearby KFC offers higher compensation.

Further, total compensation awarded for preparation of the course material is INR 10000 INR 10000 fee cleared for the course is INR 10000 per learner

Therefore it appears the entire business model or the IUS Distance Education program is:

Step 1 Set a course at minimum cost irrespective of quality

Step 2 Average IUS name to clear the maximum amount from students

Step 3 Once people discover the shoddy quality of the course create a new course on a new topic

In my opinion IUS should be prohibited from offering Distance Education courses until such time that its quality can be guaranteed to avoid further reputationloss and potentialisation against the University”

The University selected members of the URC, including Professor Mostafa and a sitting member of this Committee also expressed serious concerns in this regard in their report dated October 2010:

“Encouraging Catalyst in Academic Innovation and Excellence Creating Academic Value addition to students”

viii. Quality of academic governance systems (including appeal, grievance and redress mechanisms).

The University has introduced more than 100 Diploma programmes in the last five years. This has however not been accompanied by increase in faculty strength. This has resulted in increase in teaching load for faculty. In fact some faculty members have spent more than 100 teaching hours in a year just on multiple diploma programmes. This has severely cut time available for research and also undermined the quality of teaching due to lack of time or preparation. Therefore, it is essential that faculty size be increased to meet the teaching workload of the PG Diploma Programmes and that new PG Diploma Programmes be introduced only after consideration of available faculty for the programmes.

“Encouraging Quality of Management and Administration”

Management Failure

132. The core issue facing NUJS today is a failure of management and administration of a very large scale. The Commission received a flood of complaints. Some of the complaints received are set out here to illustrate the depth of the management failure we encountered (many of the points below are noted elsewhere in the Report as well).

- Teacher-student ratios are at a historic low and students are not receiving adequate individual attention.
- Even though there is a severe shortage of faculty new programmes are being started without adequate academic resources.
- The Undergraduate programme is suffering from grievous neglect.

Part Summary of Recommendations Submitted to the Hon'ble Chancellor on Faculty Strength to Improve Student-Teacher Ratio

7. We recommend that a plan be developed urgently to increase the NUJS faculty size to a strength of at least 80, appropriately distributed between various levels of seniority as needed for teaching and research. The faculty requirement should be drawn up based on training and research strategies to be drawn up by the Teaching Dean and a Dean be in charge of Strategy and Planning.

It is essential that faculty size be increased to meet the teaching workload of the Diploma programmes and that new Diploma programmes be introduced only after consideration of available faculty for the programmes."

A Tale of Persistent Violations?

Despite all abovementioned public notices, letters, notifications, the list of Institutions/Universities authorised to impart education through ODL mode as reflected on UGC website as on May 8, 2018 does not include the name of NUJS. On the other hand, NLSIU (Bangalore) and NALSAR (Hyderabad) – which are comparable institutions, feature on the list. [UR]

Among multiple other violations, one of the most startling violation of the presently applicable Regulations is the pre-requisite for application to obtain valid UGC recognition encapsulated under Regulation 3(1)(viii) requiring the applicant Higher Educational Institution to have valid accreditation from National Assessment and Accreditation Council with minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.26 on a 4 point scale. Another pre-requisite for application to obtain UGC approval is with respect to the territorial jurisdiction as specified under Regulation 3(1)(ii) read with Annexure 4 thereinunder.

Again, NLSIU and NALSAR appear to be compliant with all such Regulations and the preceding requirements as set out under abovementioned UGC documents . [□□□□UR□ □□

[□□□Annexure 26 is highly abridged owing to its humongous size – 281 pages]

Mr. Ramanuj Mukherjee, Chief Executive Officer, iPleaders – one such organisation having sought legal advice from a “reputed” law firm, recently (□□ri□□□□□□□) wrote to Prof. Mazumdar since he is the Director of School of Distance & Mass Education of NUJS, stating [□□□□UR□ □□]:

"We had recently approached a reputed law advisor in Delhi to ask about the current applicability of UGC law on courses offered by NUJS in which iLeaders is a service provider. We have been advised that NUJS has to pay UGC on these courses failing which there may be severe penalties. They also presented us with case laws that stipulate that courses such as those offered by iLeaders that are not recognized by UGC, CII, IICT or some other statutory body which recognize various courses, are to be treated differently than courses that are recognized as a qualification by such bodies. Universities will have to pay UGC on such courses."

On one level, this excerpt conclusively establishes that at least iPleaders' courses are not compliant with the abovementioned UGC norms and the latest Regulations. But, on another, it raises the following broad and very serious questions:

- How did the University even allow for such blatant and continued violation of the law of the land to the detriment of the institution's own reputation and public interest?
- Who are the true beneficiaries of these reprehensible associations with private

Players such as leaders MIS Management indicators and Dimensions Sidney Foundation

- What is the justification of continuation of such associations?
- Who is anyone responsible from within the University or consciously or negligently allowing such associations to do on or this on in the blatant violation of the law of the land?
- Why is NUJS so unaware of its own legal liabilities that its private partners such leaders have to advise them about persistent violation of the relevant provisions of Goods and Services Tax Act 2006 GST?

Before listing out a more comprehensive and slightly more nuanced but unexhaustive list of questions, let us first consider:

The University Administration's Role

A perusal of some of the available statutory body documents seems to suggests that there has been a deliberate attempt on part of at least some employees in the University administration to seek and obtain internal approvals for these courses without full (or any) disclosure of any information or even the basic law governing the implications of such approvals from the relevant decision-making bodies. It also seems that the relevant statutory bodies, i.e., the Hon'ble General Council, EC, Finance Committee (EC) and this Council have all been kept in dark about the illegalities which have allowed the continuance of all these courses.

The EC, in its 54th Meeting held on February 2006, under Agenda No. 18 approved the establishment of School of Distance & Mass Education, in supersession of the erstwhile Distance Education Council of NUJS approved "long ago" by this Council. Due to the inaccessibility of the relevant documents of such earlier Council approval despite several and unjustifiably long-pending Right to Information applications, and continued and conscious violation of mandatory disclosures under Section 4, Right to Information Act, 2005, (illustratively check MURU), it is difficult for us, as students, to determine the exact composition, role or history of this erstwhile Distance Education Council. However, as for the present School of Distance & Mass Education, the EC minutes of the said meeting reflect that (possibly) in addition to the duties of this erstwhile Distance Education Council, the said School would also discharge the administrative function of maintaining “all records pertaining to Degree, Diploma, and Certificate Courses conducted in Distance Mode or Online or Contact or Evening/Weekend Classes” which were previously maintained by the Office of the AR (Academics).

Earlier, the EC minutes for its 43rd Meeting held on 27th October 2019, under Agenda No. 10 reflect the resolution that a “Directorate of Distance Education” shall be formed and the “earlier body created for such purpose [be] merged into the new directorate”.

In these circumstances, the understated questions are, as they should be, directed to all past members of the erstwhile “earlier body”/Directorate of Distance Education/Distance Education Council or any other body entrusted in the past with any such duties, the Office of the AR (Academics), all the past and present members of the School of Distance & Mass Education of NUJS, any employee of the University involved in coordinating with the relevant private/external organisations partnering with NUJS and all relevant past and present members of this Hon’ble Council.

Questions

As stated in the letter by Mr. Arunima Ranjan Banerjee in his letter to the Chancellor, Hon’ble Chief Justice of India (reproduced on pages 22 to 24 in the agenda of the present meeting) and dated September 2019, the present state of ODL programmes offered by NUJS is abysmal and their concept and execution is antithetical to the spirit of our beloved institution. An unexhaustive list of questions, partly derived from those on page 25 of the present agenda file, are reproduced hereinunder:

- What basic compliance with the applicable UGC norms show and why did US enter into agreements with private providers such as Rainmaker leaders?
- Who negotiated on behalf of US and how were the agreements drawn?
- How were the partners such as Rainmaker leaders/Dillons selected? What is any verification criteria was used to select them.

- What transparent methodologies were used to decide the brand value of UoS and the profit margin ratio? In other words, it doesn't even matter if the ratio is now made up or a greater percentage flows into the University's coffers. The moot point is how these ratios were arrived at in the first place.
- If the University is receiving a healthy cash flow despite a significant share and the courses are in good demand then why haven't those been offered to regular students and M students?
- Why hasn't UoS offered these courses directly under its own banner?
- What has the administration done to this regard starting when it is anything to become compliant with UGC Regulations and receding norms governing education tomorrow to the ODL mode?
- Will the faculty staff involved in steering these dodgy agreements with known or non-compliance with UGC Regulations and receding norms and ST laws be held responsible to indemnify the University against already incurred notwithstanding any future loss on account of potential litigation and penalties?

Tip of the Iceberg?

A bare perusal of some recent Annual Reports reveals the following information regarding the approval/proposed approvals for ODL courses, without making any mention whatsoever of any applicable laws, including, but perhaps not limited to, Regulations, preceding UGC norms, DEC Guidelines, applicable GST. Similarly, Annual Report for 2015-16 curiously makes no mention of Dillon Kidney Foundation. An illustrative chart is hereinunder:

S No	Name of the Course	Partner/Sponsor	Document Date Meeting as agenda to

What can and should be done now?

As for iLeaders, we, the students, have been unable to access the relevant agreement between the University and iPleaders. However, in addition to [REDACTED], we must consider the fact that in their application form itself, candidates are required to declare that they are “aware that this [or any, for that matter] course is not recognised as a distance education course by the distance education council of UGC”. [REDACTED]

This Hon’ble Council is fully aware that private individuals entering into such contracts (including applicants to iPleaders’ courses) cannot (even voluntarily) waive of legal requirements for the valid conferment of degrees, diplomas et al. The Hon’ble Supreme Court of India dictum in Annamalai University v. Information & Tourism Deptt. [(2009) 4 SCC 590] clearly states that such UGC requirements cannot be waived under any circumstances (¶ 40 – 41, 57 – 59).

In light of the foregoing there is no reason for NUJS to continue with its association with iLeaders after an immediate review of and subject to the relevant contract terms.

As for our other partner, Dilsons Sidney Foundation, with which NUJS executed its present Memorandum of Understanding on December 2016 (MoU), the following clauses are relevant:

- Clause 2.6: The Foundation agrees to comply with the statutory requirement and follow the law of the land and not do anything in (sic!) contrary thereto in the course of conducting the said PG Diploma Course on Public Healthcare & Medical Laws (PGDPML).
- Clause 11.1: Either of the parties shall reserve the right to terminate the Agreement with due notice if:
 - either of the parties violates any of the terms and conditions of this [the] agreement;
 - either of the parties comes to know of wrong and fraudulent practices; and
 - ...

Therefore this MoU must be immediately terminated even if this results in potential litigation by Dilions Sidney Foundation since summary

- (a) there is no possibility of a court decree requiring UUS to provide specific performance since the MoU as per its Clause 11.1 is clearly determinable under Section 11(1)(c) of Specific Relief Act;
- (b) potential litigation by applicants past present or future on account of contempt statutory violations of UCs Regulations its UUs reputation and monetary resources in far greater jeopardy than potential litigation by Dilions Sidney Foundation; and
- (c) since a GST rate of 18% is applicable on each and every OD course offered by UUS any such circumstance will attract progressively incremental liability and penalty in addition to the already overde GST

lastly all remaining OD courses offered by UUS in any capacity directly or in partnership must be suspended immediately and any associations with any external partners and terminated at the earliest possible

PROPOSALS FOR OVERDUE ACADEMIC REFORMS

Over the past few years, especially since the formation of the Academic Reforms Committee (ARC) under the student body in 2014 vide amendment to its Constitution dated November 25, 2014, the student body has persistently been presenting suggestions to introduce additions and reforms to the Academic Rules. However, even before that, since January 2014, several suggestions were made to the University which were subsequently debated and approved by the faculty [UR 2014]. These were supposed to be notified and implemented by the then VC expeditiously [UR 2014]. However, years later, these changes have not been implemented.

Specifically, the reforms approved by the faculty, yet to be implemented by the then VC through an Officer Order are:

- a) Mandatory circulation of a statement of factors considered for evaluation at the time of submission of marks for End Semester Examinations-akin to a Model Answer Key [UR 2014].
- b) Mandatory circulation of guidelines on expectations on projects and End Semester Examinations in the beginning of any given semester [UR 2014].
- c) Mandatory written feedback on term paper or projects [UR 2014].
- d) Abolition of class participation marks for compulsory courses and limitation of class participations marks to a maximum of 5 marks for elective courses [UR 2014].

These concerns, especially points a), b) and c), from basic best practices followed around the world and are very important to ensure that students receive basic feedback and accountability on academic evaluation standards. It is a basic expectation from the University administration to ensure transparency to maximise students' academic experience, which is why the ARC and the faculty agreed to these reforms after due deliberation. Unfortunately, as stated above, these reforms have not been formalised till date.

The most recent proposal to amend the Academic Rules was tabled before this Council in its meeting dated 2020st 2020. The Council, in turn, formed a Sub-committee – comprising of Mr. Arup Poddar (Chairperson), Mr. TVGNS Sreenivasulu, Mr. Anirban Mazumdar, Ms. Vaneeta Patnaik and Ms. Anupama Ghoshal which approved of most of the amendments proposed by the ARC and submitted a final report sometime in early Marc□ □□□□□UR□ □□. They unconditionally accepted, among ‘other things’,

- model-answer key (a) above; entry 11 – proposed Rule 31A);
- advance publication of project evaluation criteria and optional project consultation (b) and c) above; entry 7 – proposed Rule 8A); and
- abolition of class participation component from compulsory courses and restriction to a maximum of 5 marks in elective courses – subject to students’ opinion – which clearly is in favour of the proposal (d) above; entry 5 – proposed Rules 6.3.1. and 7.2.1).

The URC also notes in this regard:

In the absence of corrective action from the administration, students formed an Academic Reforms Committee and put together detailed proposals for reforming the prevalent Academic and Examination Rules. Their proposals have not been acted upon.

...

Every member of Faculty should be required to give written/mailed comments on project papers to every student. Answer key/Criteria used for evaluation must be shared at the time of declaration of results. The same shall be discussed at an Open Session.”

PROPOSED URC's RECOMMENDATION

The students unconditionally support Recommendation 22, which must be adopted in line with instructions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India (page 98 of the present agenda).

PROPOSED STUDENT REPRESENTATION IN THE GENERAL COUNCIL ITS FUTURE MOTIONS

The URC has also recommended a non-voting invitee status to the elected President of the Student Juridical Association in the General Council of the University (Part V's RECOMMENDATION No. 23) to help re-build students' trust in the administration. Given such a position has been recommended for the student representative in the supreme decision-making authority of the University as per the statute, namely, the General Council (S. 9, WBNUJS Act, 1999), it is our humble submission that a similar non-voting invitee status be accorded to the elected student representatives (ideally, both the President and the Vice President) in the Academic Council as well.

Students already carry out such representative functions in the University Building Committee and Library Committee with utmost sincerity and diligence. It has led to greater transparency in the working of the University and improved the efficiency of decision-making of these Hon'ble bodies through constructive first-hand inputs from the primary and most numerous stakeholders.

Since granting a non-voting invitee status to the student representatives would require only a resolution to that effect being passed by the Council, we humbly request your urgent and favourable consideration for the same.

Ms. Ray was issued a provisional degree certificate as she fulfilled the requirement of her degree, mentioning her year of graduation as 2017. Later on she appealed to the Vice Chancellor for revision of the year of awarding degree in the Provisional degree certificate and requested her year of graduation be made as 2016 in place of 2017. After consultation with the course teacher, Ms. Ruchira Goswami, Vice Chancellor decided that the date of submission of project to be considered, not	In light of the peculiar facts and circumstances and the documentary evidence put before the honourable members of the Academic Council, it was decided by the honourable members that the year of passing of Ms. Shreyashi Roy to be reckoned as 2016 and accordingly the Degree certificate of Ms. Shreyashi Ray to be corrected and forwarded to the Chancellor for his signature. An enquiry to be conducted by Prof. (Dr.) Poonam Saxena, Vice Chancellor, NLU, Jodhpur and Prof. (Dr.) A. However, she was eligible for her degree in the Twelfth Convocation held on 10th December 2017. But she was not present in the Convocation and could not take her degree. Along with other degree certificates conferred during this convocation date of graduation in her certificate was also mentioned as date of graduation as 2017. Once she received the certificate, Ms. Ray brought to the knowledge that the year of awarding the certificate is wrong. A. R. (Academic) apprised the matter to the Vice Chancellor and the Vice Chancellor directed orally to AR (Academic) to get a fresh degree certificate printed with the details of revised provisional certificate. Accordingly Academic section got printed the certificate and placed it before the Vice Chancellor and Prof. P. Ishwara Bhat also signed the certificate and asked me to provide facts of the case before sending it to the Chancellor of the University.

	The facts of the case of Ms. Shreyashi Roy was placed (copy of the note attached as Annexure 8). After perusal of the facts, the Vice Chancellor did not forward the certificate to the Chancellor for his signature as he expressed that the date of awarding of the degree should be 2017 not 2016.

Section 11(1) of FCRA: Mandatory Prior Permission or Registration

Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 2010 (FCRA) was enacted by the Hon'ble Union Parliament on September 26, 2010. Its Section 1(3) read with Notification No. SO909(E) dated April 29, 2011 made it effective from May 2011. Under the proviso to Section 11(1) of FCRA, prior permissions granted under (earlier) FCRA 1976 shall be valid for a (maximum) period of five years from the date on which this section comes into force. As the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) pertaining to renewal of registration clarify, the last date of expiry is April 2016 [Q3: QUR P. Ishwara Bhat, Balancing Transnational Charity with Democratic Order, Security, Social Harmony and Accountability: A Critical Appraisal of the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act, 2010, 4 J. INDIAN L. & SOC'Y 155 (2013): QUR].

While we, as students, do not have access to all documents and NUJS Annual Reports make no mention of mandatory filings or necessary compliance with FCRA, a quick look through the FCRA official website (<https://fcraonline.nic.in/home/index.aspx>) has shown us:

- a) NUJS had obtained prior permission in 2003 under the Educational category and in 2004 under the Social category suggesting that NUJS is no more compliant with FCRA at least since April 2004; [QUR Q 10 and Q 11, FAQs on registration and prior permission: QUR] and
- b) NLSIU (Bangalore), a comparable institution and pioneer of the National Law School project, is fully compliant with FCRA as on date under the Educational category. [QUR].

It is also clear that NUJS never validly (met conditions under Section 12(4)) applicable for any such registration/prior permission either since April 30, 2016 since in that scenario:

- a) either such permission would have ordinarily be granted within ninety days from the date of grant of registration by the Central Government (Section 12(3) of FCRA); or
- b) in accordance with first proviso to Section 12(3) of FCRA, the Central Government in case of non-grant of certificate or prior permission, within the said ninety period, must have communicated (rectifiable) reasons for the same.

Case in Point: NUJS – Herbert Smith Freehills Memorandum of Understanding [MoU]

While we do not have access to any other documents, the said MoU strongly suggests a multiple violations of FCRA. The said MoU first signed on September 17, 2013 [Original MoU] between NUJS and Herbert Smith Freehills (HSF), a silver circle law firm headquartered at London, United Kingdom, first granted an annual contribution of £ 5,000 (Clause 4.1: [UR]) towards the hosting of NUJS – Herbert Smith Freehills National Corporate Law Moot Court Competition.

This MoU first signed by prestigious HSF was the product of sincere efforts of several NUJS alumni who joined the firm first as trainees before being made full-time associates. It is a matter of pride that recently [December 14, 2017: Amended MoU] NUJS and HSF amended the original MoU (Amended MoU) and increased the annual contribution to £ 7,000 (Clause 2.1.1: [UR]) and extended the original term well in advance for another year – from 2019 to 2020 (Clause 2.2: [UR]).

It is, however, unfortunate that the University administration has failed to fulfil its obligations under the MoU. Clause 10 of the Original MoU is reproduced hereinunder ([UR]):

“COMMITMENT NUJS agrees and undertakes to perform their obligations hereunder in compliance with all Applicable Laws, which are applicable, as on the Effective Date, to NUJS or may be made applicable to NUJS during the Initial term (or any extension thereof) or both. NUJS agrees and undertakes that it shall, during the currency of this MoU, obtain and maintain in full force and effect, all licenses or permits, if any, as may be required and are necessary under Applicable Law to perform its obligations herein.”

Further, Clause 4 states under the Amended MoU states:

URTUR ASSURANCE

The Parties shall do all such things necessary and desirable in order to confirm or establish the validity and enforceability of this Agreement.

Not only has NUJS administration acted in clear violation of the Original MoU and newly added terms under the Amended MoU in addition to Section 11(1) of FCRA, but it is also responsible for the following separate and distinct violations:

Rule 11 of FCRR: Mixing of domestic and foreign receipts

Rule 11 of Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Rules, 2011 [FCRR UR] states:

Maintenance of accounts

Every person who has been granted registration or prior permission under section 12 shall maintain a separate set of accounts and records, exclusively, for the foreign contribution received and utilised.

The FAQs on maintenance of accounts further clarify the same [Q1: UR]. FAQs on banks and banking related issues further clarify that an exclusive that a dedicated/exclusive Foreign Contribution bank account is a pre-requisite for grant of registration or prior permission [Q1: UR].

The proof of a clear contravention of Rule 11 of FCRR is established in UR – a letter dated October 15, 2015, wherein the former Vice Chancellor (Prof. (Dr.) P. Ishwara Bhat: Former VC), requested HSF to transfer money directly to University's main account with Corporation Bank, NUJS branch which receives innumerable domestic/local fund receipts every year.

Rule 17 of FCRR: Mandatory Filing of Annual Returns

FCCR were amended in 2015 vide Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Amendment Rules, 2015 [UR]. Under the amended Rule 17(1) of FCRR, NUJS is also obligated to file an annual return in form FC-4 [Q1, FAQs on filing of annual returns: UR]. Rule 17(2) of FCCR mandates that FC-4 "shall reflect the foreign contribution received in the exclusive bank account".

The Ministry of Home Affairs has, from time to time, released several circulars [recently, dated May 29, 2017: UR] and public notices [most recently, dated April 24, 2018: UR] in this regard.

Conclusion

It is clear that the University administration has failed to comply with the Original MoU and Amended MoU signed with HSF and multiple provisions of the FCRA. It is unfortunate that our long standing relationship with HSF has been in serious jeopardy in light of this administrative oversight. Under Section 37 of FCRA, whoever fails to comply with any provision of the Act which has no separate penalty thereunder “shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine or with both.” For further guidance, Notification No. S.O. 1976(E), S.O. 1070(E), S.O. 2133(E) dated August 26, 2011, April 26, 2013, and June 16, 2016 respectively [REDACTED].

Clause 8.3 of the (Original) MoU empowers HSF to unilaterally terminate the MoU by providing a six month notice to NUJS. The Hon’ble Members may, if they deem fit, consider an appropriate amendment to WBNUJS Act, 1999 to the effect of compulsory annual auditing of the University by the Comptroller and Auditor General of India. This will allow the University to be completely exempt from the purview of FCRA vide Notification No. S.O. 1492(E) dated July 1, 2011 [REDACTED].

II RESIST T VIO TIO S O U C CT

Application of UGC norms to Open and Distance Learning courses:

The Hon’ble Supreme Court of India in Annamalai University v. Information & Tourism Deptt. [(2009) 4 SCC 590] held that regulations framed by the University Grants Commission (UGC) to determine standards of education are a part of the UGC Act, 1956, and are applicable to both open universities and formal universities (¶42). It further clarified that there can be no relaxation on the “basic things” necessary (referring to the relevant UGC regulations and norms) for conferment of a degree (¶¶ 40 – 41, 57 – 59).

On May 2016, the UGC issued a letter to Vice Chancellors of all Universities iterating that the UGC had been entrusted with “all the regulatory responsibilities” of the Open and Distance Learning (ODL) education system by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India (MHRD) [REDACTED].

On October 2016, a public notice was issued by the UGC not only advised prospective students desirous of pursuing education through ODL mode to check the approval/recognition of programmes of Universities/Institutions on the UGC website, but also advises students to not take admission in any Study Centre offering the course outside its “Territorial Jurisdiction”. Universities/Institutions were also advised to operate only within their respective territorial jurisdiction in accordance with relevant UGC norms [नोटे दें].

Another public notice issued on 20 January 2017 by the UGC which also refers back to earlier public notices dated 2016 and October 2016, reiterates the UGC's policy on territorial jurisdiction as per the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Prof. Yashpal v. State of Chhattisgarh [(2005) 5 SCC 420]. It also states that the UGC has not accorded recognition to any University/Institute to offer online programmes [नोटे दें].

On 20th January, UGC sent another set of letters to UGC approved institutions offering education through ODL mode. While many other national law Universities are on this list of recipient institutions interestingly US remains curiously missing [नोटे दें].

Currently, the UGC (Open and Distance Learning) Regulations, 2017 (Regulations) hold the field as regards approval and recognition of ODL system of learning and are set to be operationalised for the year 2018-19 [नोटे दें].

The State of ODL Programmes in the University and the Unjust Allocation of its Burden on Full-time Students

The voices of concern over the current structure of ODL programmes operated by the University have come from various quarters over the last few years. These concerns relate to the aspects of the University administration partnering with profit-making private entities for conducting ODL courses, shortage of academic resources including faculty, and undue consequences of diploma programmes adversely affecting undergraduate teaching in the University.

A member of the faculty, Dr. Nirajan Chakraborty, Assistant Professor (currently on leave) in his email dated August 6, 2017 to all faculty members, and specifically Prof. (Dr.)

Anirban Mazumdar, Prof. (Dr.) Sandeepa Bhat and the former VC, expressed his distress at profit-oriented entrepreneurs exploiting the NUJS brand name, thereby, severely enhancing the potential for litigation against the University and consequent reputational damage. He called for immediate cancellation of the agreements the University has entered into with private players for ODL programmes. [§§§§§URC §§]

A current student of B.A. LL.B., who is ~~regularly enabled by relevant faculty members for drafting study material or some ODL courses~~ (revealed on the condition of anonymity) that preparation of course material is ~~outsourced to students without any guidelines or structure~~. Course material prepared in this manner has been described as “an ~~indecipherable mess of legal provisions riddled with inaccuracies~~”, mostly plagiarised from online sources. Yet, this method of course material preparation is preferred since it can be arranged for paltry compensation of INR 3000 to INR 10,000 depending upon the amount of assignment undertaken. The business model rests on offering cheap courses of bad quality to lure gullible people followed by continuous creation of new courses once the shoddy quality of the previous course is discovered.

The esteemed University Review Commission (URC) has also expressed its serious concerns in this regard. It has noted that the ~~introduction of over 100 Diploma programmes in the last five years has not been accompanied with commensurate increase in faculty strength leading to overburdening of existing faculty, undercutting their time for research and undermining overall quality of teaching (¶116)~~. Some members of the faculty have spent over ~~100 teaching hours in a year only on diploma programmes~~ (¶116).

Per the URC, this problem is accentuated by the failure of management and administration at the University (¶132). On one hand, the student-teacher ratio is at a historic low and on the other hand, new programmes are being started despite lack of academic resources (¶132). This has led to “~~reverses neglect of the undergraduate programme~~ (¶132).

In its recommendations, the URC has noted the need for enhancing faculty strength to 80 in order to meet the teaching workload and set right the student-teacher ratio and meanwhile, it has recommended that new Diploma programmes be introduced only after consideration of available capacity (Part 5, §§7, 8).

A Tale of Persistent Violations?

Despite all the notices, letters, notifications, and advisories by the UGC, the list of Institutions/Universities authorised to impart education through ODL available on its website does not include NUJS.

Among multiple other violations, one of the most startling violation of the presently applicable Regulations [amended vide Notification No. 2016/UGC/DOM/2016/UR/...] is the pre-requisite for application to obtain valid UGC recognition encapsulated under Regulation 3(1)(viii) requiring the applicant Higher Educational Institution to have valid accreditation from National Assessment and Accreditation Council with minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average of 3.26 on a 4 point scale. Another pre-requisite for application to obtain UGC approval is with respect to the territorial jurisdiction as specified under Regulation 3(1)(ii) read with Annexure 4 thereinunder.

On the other hand, NLSIU (Bangalore) and NALSAR (Hyderabad) – which are comparable institutions, feature in the list on UGC website and also appear to be compliant with all such Regulations and the preceding requirements as set out under abovementioned UGC documents. [None of the above]

Mr. Ramanuj Mukherjee, Chief Executive Officer, iPleaders – one such organisation with whom the University has entered into an agreement with for ODL courses, in his recent email to Prof. Mazumdar (Director of School of Distance & Mass Education of NUJS) dated April 18, 2018, acknowledges the fact that iPleaders' courses are not compliant with the abovementioned UGC norms and the latest Regulations. In addition to this, Mr. Mukherjee also states that he has been advised by "reputed" tax advisor in Delhi that the burden to pay GST on these courses is upon the University [None of the above]:

that courses such as those offered by iLeaders that are not recognized by UGC/CICT or such other statutory body which recognize various courses, are to be treated differently than courses that are recognized as a qualification by such bodies. Universities will have to pay GST on such courses.

The University Administration's Role

A perusal of available statutory body documents seems to suggest that not only some employees in the University administrations have deliberately attempted to seek and obtain approvals for these courses without full (or any) disclosure of information and without paying any heed towards legal implications, but also that the relevant statutory bodies i.e., the Hon'ble General Council, Academic Council, Finance Committee and this Council have been kept in dark about the stark illegalities surrounding these courses.

This Council, in its 54th Meeting held on February 2018, under Agenda No. 18 approved the establishment of School of Distance Mass Education, in supersession of the erstwhile Distance Education Council of NUJS approved "long ago" by this Council. The relevant minutes note that the said School would also discharge the administrative function of maintaining "all records pertaining to Degree, Diploma, and Certificate Courses conducted in Distance Mode or Online or Contact or Evening/Weekend Classes". Earlier, the Executive Council minutes for its 43rd Meeting held on June 2017, under Agenda No. 10 reflect the resolution that a "Directorate of Distance Education" shall be formed and the "earlier body created for such purpose [be] merged into the new directorate".

Information culled out from some recent and available NUJS Annual Reports and minutes of various meetings regarding the approval/proposed approvals for ODL courses, reveals information about over 16 PG Diploma, Masters and Certificate courses, without making any mention whatsoever of any applicable laws, including, but perhaps not limited to, Regulations, preceding UGC norms, applicable Goods and Services Tax, et al. Similarly, Annual Report for 2015-16 curiously makes no mention of Dillon Kidney Foundation which has partnered with the University for ODL courses since 2015. Many of these courses were partnered with/sponsored by private entities and even the identity of private players involved remains unclear in most such cases. III. ACTION ON RECOMMENDATIONS IN JUSTICE REPORTS SUPPORT

It pains us to agitate yet again against persistent inaction of the University administration on financial embezzlement involving the former Registrar of the University, Mr. Surajit Chandra Mukhopadhyay and (presumably) various other employees of the University. The financial scam pertained to the tender work awarded to M/s Curtain Centre for interior works of Rooms 201, 227 and 328 of the Academic Block in violation of General Financial Rules, 2005, and against the advice of the consultant architect and the campus engineer. This has been established by the enquiry report of Justice (Retd.) Pravendu Narayan Sinha (Inquiry Officer) ordered by the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta.

However, no steps have been taken to recover the huge financial loss that the University has suffered nor any action taken against the other persons involved, notwithstanding an express recommendation of the Inquiry Officer to initiate a C.I.D. inquiry for establishment of criminal wrongdoings of the involved persons, including, (still) campus supervisor, Mr. Dam, who continues to work at NUJS has been clearly identified as actively involved in fabricating documents to aid the former Registrar (pp. 84, 100 and 101).

Similarly, various others who were suspected to be involved continue to work in the University (p. 201). In other words, there has been no determination by any court, the Executive Council or any other authority in the University on the question of who all were involved yet.

The URC also noted the event of financial embezzlement leading to the dismissal of former Registrar and lack of any effective steps taken in furtherance of the Inquiry Officer's Report (¶132):

"There was a major instance of alleged corruption and embezzlement that has resulted in the suspension of the then Registrar. An inquiry report ordered by the Executive Council and another ordered by the High Court into this alleged corruption have both made recommendations for further investigation into a number of aspects and the fixing of individual responsibility beyond the Registrar. However there has been no effective follow up action on these recommendations.”

We humbly beseech the Hon’ble Executive Council that without causing any further delay immediate steps be taken to order filing of criminal complaint against persons involved in the financial embezzlement, initiation of a C.I.D. enquiry into the matter be considered, and all necessary steps towards recovery of the losses caused to the University be taken along with any other it deems fit.

IV□□□estiona□e Inaction □y University □m□oyees □ Servin□ □on□ D□rations on t□e □U□S □C□□C and □C

Sometime back I had written for the Statesman analysing the trend of student unrests at other National Law Universities [□□□□UR□ □□]. One of the underlying problems that I had identified was the centralisation of power in the hands of a select few within the University administration and the pragmatic impossibility for esteemed external members on statutory bodies to micromanage affairs of the University. In such circumstances, there is good faith reliance on the internal members/employees/faculty members, who double up as members of these statutory bodies, to lay necessary information before the University authorities in the agenda files and actively participate in discussions on contentious internal issues. We believe basic statutory compliances are a matter that internal members of these Hon’ble statutory bodies are best placed to highlight adequately.

In the last meeting, we had pointed out the apparent abuse of power to appoint Registrar (Acting), Mr. Sarfaraz Ahmed Khan by the former VC in exercise of his powers under Clause 18(5) of the Schedule to the WBNUJS Act, 1999 [□□□□UR□ □□].

In this backdrop, his recent appointment as a full time member of the Council in addition to being its (ideally non-Member) Secretary, raises serious conflict of interest concerns in light of Clause 20(2) of the Schedule to WBNUJS Act, 1999. This, we humbly believe, brings into question the legality of his appointment to this Hon’ble Council in the first place. Lastly, we had highlighted concerns regarding his continuing evasiveness to Right to Information requests filed back in August 2016 [REDACTEDUR□ □□].

Today, we request the Hon'ble Council to consider the role of the ~~on-time members~~ of NUJS statutory bodies in failing to bring issues I, II and III adequately to the attention of the respective statutory bodies. The following page contains the full list of present employees' membership history on these Hon'ble statutory bodies. The chart also highlights serious concerns regarding the observance of the prescribed rule of "rotation" for nomination of faculty members to the Hon'ble Executive Council under Clause (7)(1)(i) and (j) of the Schedule to WBNUJS Act, 1999 in the nomination to these coveted positions.

V University Review Commission's Recommendations

Vide his letter dated January 27, 2018, the Hon'ble Chancellor had proposed the discussion of certain URC recommendations before this Council. In that regard, we seek to address the following recommendations:

Recommendation 23: Student Representation in the GC

The URC noted that the University is a “community” which requires mutual trust and confidence amongst the student body, the faculty and the administration in order to function. The issues raised by students, as we have been doing in the past, are all in the best interests of the University. These issues are resolvable through reasoned dialogue and appropriate action (¶72). For this, the students, being the most numerous stakeholders, must be given a democratic voice and a due role in the administration (¶79).

This democratic voice can be granted through the student body of NUJS, the Student Juridical Association. The SJA has been called as a “feather in the cap of NUJS” by the URC (¶28). Recognising the SJA as the best amongst the student bodies of National Law Universities, the URC (under the Chairmanship of a former Vice Chancellor of NLSIU and the present Vice Chancellor of NALSAR) appreciated the SJA representation made before the Commission. It noted (¶29):

“Our interaction with the SJA confirms that one of the great achievements of NUJS has been the building up of a student culture of active engagement with community issues - a rarity today even in globally ranked institutions. This should be preserved and strengthened.”

Therefore, the URC recommended a non-voting invitee status to the elected President of the Student Juridical Association in the General Council of the University (Recommendation 23) to help re-build the students’ trust in the administration.

Students already carry out such representative functions in the University Building Committee and Library Committee with utmost sincerity and diligence. It has led to greater transparency in the working of the University and improved the efficiency of decision-making of these Hon’ble bodies through constructive first-hand inputs from the primary stakeholders. Since granting a non-voting invitee status to the student representatives would require only a resolution to that effect being passed by this Council, we humbly request your urgent and favourable consideration for the same.

Recommendation 5: Temporary reduction in student intake

The URC pointed out that while the NUJS infrastructure was meant to accommodate 80-85 students per year, actual intake has been raised to 127 students per year. Thus, a total of 767 students are being admitted as opposed to the hostel capacity of 504 students (¶30). At the same time, NUJS physical infrastructure and faculty size have remained stagnant.

The URC further notes “NUJS's student strength has increased 122% since 2002, whereas its faculty strength has increased by only 6%, in the same period” (¶94). Thus, the infrastructure and faculty capacity are disproportionate to the number of students. Hence, URC recommended a temporary reduction of intake in the LLB students by 22 seats to 105, starting in 2018 (temporary halt to admission of 19 NRI sponsored seats and 3 foreign national seats). Per the URC would not only provide immediate relief but also improve the quality of students. The URC noted that infrastructure and faculty resources can be improved in the meanwhile. The intake of students should be increased only when adequate resources have been established.

Recommendation 1: Appointment of a Committee to Review Management Crisis

The URC recognised the failure of the management and administration as “the core issue” facing NUJS (¶132). NUJS has not developed any framework to “define, measure and improve” its academic quality (¶69). Pursuant to this, it had received “a flood of complaints” indicating the large-scale nature of the issue. The complaints pertained to matters inter alia:

- Vacant key senior positions indicating vacuum of leadership
- Non-implementation of a retired High Court judge's recommendations addressed as III in the present petition.
- Poor handling of sexual harassment incidents.
- Mass exodus of faculty without adequate replacement.
- Apprehensions of mala fide and biased faculty and staff appointments.
- Condoned student misconduct because of unjustified influence by affluent parents.
- Overcrowded campus.

- Low teacher-student ratios.
- Poor or non-existent record keeping.
- Low administrative competence.
- No strategic or long-term thinking.
- Mismanagement of attendance and examination issues.
- Inactive research centres.
- Non-transparent administrative decisions.

Therefore, URC recommended appointment of a committee of one EC member and one outside expert based in Kolkata to review the current management crisis and advice and assist the Administration about management steps that should be taken immediately to address the crisis. It recommended a specific time bound action plan be developed and monitored by EC and Chancellor be informed about such action.

Recommendation 2: Vacant Registrar's post

The URC criticised that all key senior positions remained either unfilled or will fall vacant soon. These included inter alia the posts of the Registrar, Finance Officer, Accounts Officer and the Librarian. Thus, NUJS faces a “vacuum of leadership” (¶134).

Therefore, the URC recommended that the Registrar's post be “advertised immediately” and “filled promptly” by an experienced administrator, capable of handling the crisis that NUJS is facing. This would improve the quality of management and administration.

Recommendation 3: Vacant Account Officer's post

The URC recommended that the Accounts Officers' post and all other vacant posts be “advertised immediately” and “filled promptly”. Further, the EC must monitor the recruitment through the committee suggested in Recommendation 1.

Recommendation 7: Increasing Faculty Strength

Today, NUJS stands short of about 55 faculty members (¶94). Our faculty-student ratio has hit a dismal low 1:22. This has drastically affected our academic quality. We request the EC to take consider this matter with utmost urgency and take immediate steps to increase faculty intake to keep up with the increase in student strength.

We further humbly submit that the suggestions outlined in the report to increase the quality and number of faculty which will lead to improvement in the academic quality be considered and taken into account while framing a policy/ plan.

Recommendation 21: Reduction of fees and dependence on fees to Finance Revenues

While the first three Annual Reports of NUJS had envisaged that only 50%-60% of NUJS' revenues will be met by fees, presently some 153% of NUJS' expenditures are financed through fees. This has not only reduced the responsibility of the faculty to engage in research work, but it has also made education in NUJS available only to those people who can afford to pay the exorbitant fees charged (¶133). It is our earnest request that the policy of not raising more than 60% of the revenue from student fee is restored and legal education is made accessible to all. For the same, we request that the URC recommendation to appoint an expert committee to propose a financial plan for NUJS for the next decade be formed at the earliest.

30th October, 2014

Subject: Status of approval / recognition of programme of Universities / Institutions through Open and Distance Learning (ODL) Mode.

It has come to the notice of University Grants Commission (UGC) that some Universities/Institutions are giving misleading advertisements in the newspapers and through other media for admission in Programmes of Study through Open and Distance Learning (ODL) mode or online mode indicating that they have approval of the UGC for various programmes.

Students desirous of pursuing educational qualification through ODL mode are hereby advised to check the current status of approval / recognition of programmes of Universities / institutions on UGC website www.ugc.ac.in/deb. In the absence of the UGC approval, qualifications acquired through ODL mode shall not be treated recognised for the purpose of employment under Central Government.

Students are also advised to make note of the Territorial Jurisdiction of the ODL University/Institution and not to take admission at any Study Centre outside its Jurisdiction or franchised Study Centre/Contact point. Study Centre has to be operated by the University/Institution itself within its territorial jurisdiction only as per the UGC norms.

UGC has issued such public notices in the past vide notice No.27-1/2012(CPP-II) dated 27th June, 2013 and UGC/DEB/QMC/2013 dated 9th August, 2014.

No. F.11-5/2015 (DEB-III)

Dated:-25.01.2016

PUBLIC NOTICE : DISTANCE EDUCATION PROGRAMMES

It has come to the notice of the UGC that some Universities/Deemed to be Universities/Institutions are offering programs through Open & Distance Learning (ODL) mode in gross violation of the policy of the UGC/erstwhile DEC. These Universities/Deemed to be Universities/Institutions are issuing misleading advertisements that their programmes are recognized by the UGC. Students, parents and public in general, are hereby, informed that the list of the recognized institutions (alongwith the courses), which are permitted to offer programmes through distance mode is posted on the UGC's website www.ugc.ac.in/deb. Besides, it may also be noted that no institution is permitted to offer Diploma/Bachelor/Master level programme under ODL mode in Engineering & Technology. Also, UGC has not accorded recognition to any university/institution to offer 'online' programmes.

As per the Hon'ble Supreme Court judgement (2005) in the case of Prof. Yashpal vs. the State of Chhattisgarh the policy of UGC with regard to territorial jurisdiction and off -campuses/study centres has been clearly articulated in its Public Notice dated June 27, 2013 which is available on UGC website. It may also be noted that qualifications acquired through ODL mode from a non-recognized institution(s) shall neither be recognized for the purpose of employment in government services nor for pursuing higher education.

Dated: Oct., 2016

The Registrar/Director
(As per list)

Sub: Online Examinations under Open and Distance Learning mode-Reg.

Sir,

As you are aware that while seeking recognition for the years 2015-16 and 2016-17, the institutions submitted an affidavit agreeing to various conditions including that "no online programme leading to award of degree/certification shall be offered by the University/institution until a policy is framed and approved by UGC in this regard".

However, it has been noted by UGC that some institutions/universities which have been approved by UGC to impart education through open and distance learning mode are offering to conduct 'Online Examinations'.

The matter was considered and it was observed that creditable online examination system for large number of learners involves a lot of complexity of managerial issues, availability of reliable and robust alternative networks connecting all examination centres, highly secured ICT systems; development of difficulty level based huge question banks etc., requiring heavy initial expenditure and running costs. It was also observed that so far, UGC has not laid down any standard parameters for holding the examinations 'Online'.

It is therefore, requested that your university/institution should not conduct 'Online Examinations' until such time that the UGC Guidelines are formulated and made mandatory applicable.

This issues with the approval of competent authority.

Yours faithfully

Dear VC Sir & Colleagues,

A person whom I have taught as part of L& T NUJS PGDBL course recently wrote to me with a host of concerns and grave dissatisfaction on the IP Leaders MBL Program he is currently enrolled. His e-mail and other documents are attached in the e-mail above. I believe the concerns are serious and requires immediate attention. So I am forwarding the same to all of you, especially to the members of the committee constituted for this purpose.

I have mentioned in the past that some profit oriented entrepreneurs are exploiting NUJS brand name and the agreements require to be immediately stopped. Now I am attaching public queries. If the matter is ignored further, I am sure that it is not far, when NUJS will be dragged to Court for this. In public interest and for the seek of NUJS brand reputation it is my appeal please act on this matter with some urgency or the University will suffer permanent damage of its reputation.

Regards

Dear Sir,

I am writing this mail with some queries which are really important for me take the decision whether I should continue to do the course named MA in Business Law from NUJS or not .

Before table down my issue, I want to give a brief about myself & illustrate you the reason behind my enrollment for this MBL, NUJS course .

First ,I am a HR professional having around 10 years of experience , specially in projects /corporate HR in various companies like McNally Bharat, L&T and now working in one of the most reputed company based out of Kolkata . My job role requires extensive knowledge of HR operations and statutory compliances . My basic back ground in B.Tech -Engineering, Masters in HR Management (IISWBM). I have also completed PGDBL from NUJS, Kolkata in 2014. I do not have any LLB or LLM degree .

Second, having been into HR , it is indispensable for me to have in depth knowledge about labour laws and statutory compliance to monitor the same for project sites and offices .The required knowledge and skill help me to comply the statutory requirements and develop a better culture of non compliant to become a corporate citizen for my organisation . It is my honest confession that my objective is not to a become lawyer , but to know jurisprudence behind the enactment of labour laws & statutory requirements to understand and apply better in the field .

This two above points were discussed throughly over phone with MBL coordinators and explained them about my requirement but there are certain gaps which I found in this journey .

1. My registration for this programme : is it a university registration (Find S/N No. In attached form) . Or it has been given by Ipleaders only ? Will NUJS recognise this course in future for any kind of background verification, if any such done by Employer ? Will I get alumni status , if I complete the course .

2. Affiliation : is this course affiliated by UGC ? Any chance of getting affiliation from UGC ?

3. Assignments : there are 3 assignments given to write on certain subjects where we can take the help external sources but the plagiarism level must not exceed 30% and it would be determined by NUJS . First observation is that these topics are haphazardly given and secondly how should we check our plagiarism level so that it can match with university norms as it is mentioned . As a result, I have submitted 3 assignments .and after waiting around 3 months, one assignment got only checked, rest 2 were not checked even , and reasons are not illustrated properly . Only, it has been communicated that they have not received the same wherein all acknowledge copies are received by me.. It was not even discussed properly how to make it better .

4. Materials : Mostly theory, tough to understand, at least for me as I am not from legal background . Probably , it is a common course curricula but except materials, nothing is there . Last time, when I did PGDBL from NUJS, I received a complete support through virtual classes, doubt clearing support , and also interaction with NUJS faculty etc .It is not there till now. I also feel that the approach to the subject is required to be changed . It should be based on case study and not full of theory , otherwise it is becoming time consuming to mug up everything . My learning should be applicable to my job and enhance my skill to monitor the same for my organization . Therefore, study material should be prepared by keeping in mind about the usability of recipient. In fact, hardcopy materials which are provided, is minuscule compare to the material available in soft version . It is not comprehensive also .

5. Mentorship : It has been stated to me that one mentor will be attached with each of us for support and development . It is not done till now. Will this mentor from NUJS or from Ipleaders club ?

6. Course Fee : The course fee which is being paid by us, has been accepted by NUJS or Ipleaders .

I am in doubt whether I have made any mistake by enrolling my name in this course or not .

I have enrolled only because this course is associated with NUJS . I clearly want to know that what is the association level of NUJS and NUJS faculties with this programme ? In fact I am thinking to quit this course because it is not giving any additional benefit to me and also I have paid 45K for this course .

I want to know from you about my above mentioned points and require more clarity on this . Kindly let me know, would I get any refund ,if I quit the course now ?

Thanks & Regards,

Islands of excellence or despair?

National Law Universities (NLUs) were set up with the intent of standardising and improving legal education in India. They were meant to provide all-round education and promote academic research in the field of law. While NLUs have made some inroads in improving legal education in the country, the full potential of these 'islands of excellence' is yet to be unlocked. NLUs are plagued with administrative problems, which threaten institutional prospects and cause unnecessary tussles with students.

NLUs today are inefficiently administrated institutions that fail to provide basic facilities such as decent faculty, proper classrooms, proper residential areas, a functional library, hygienic environment and other such necessities. For instance, NUALS (Kochi) failed to provide students with clean drinking water which has led to a jaundice outbreak on campus.

Continued lack of these facilities and false assurances by administrations inevitably culminate in student protests such as the ones at HNLU (Raipur), DSNU (Vizag), NLUJAA (Assam) and RMLNLU (Lucknow) to name a few. In all such protests, administrations have tended to respond with callousness and arrogance by labelling the students as 'undisciplined' and 'disorderedly', trivialising the protests. This is evident from the student protest at NUSRL (Ranchi) in April earlier this year where students demanded basic rights like hygienic food, basic transparency, proper classes, coded answer scripts, proper security and a rodent-free campus.

Rather than addressing these legitimate concerns, the Vice Chancellor dismissed the protest as one for holidays and threatened disciplinary action against students. While the students had suspended the protest then on assurance of favourable consideration by the Vice Chancellor in charge, his subsequent inaction has now forced the students to resume their peaceful protest.

In my opinion, as someone who has been a part of the student administration in an NLU for his entire student life, there exists a common systematic problem with the administrative setup. NLUs have highly centralised administrative systems which lack basic transparency, especially in financial matters, and which accord little importance to collective aspirations of the students, research scholars and faculty.

Centralisation of Power

Administration of an NLU is supposed to be overseen by its Executive Council (EC). This EC is supposed to act as an accountability mechanism over the actions of the Vice-Chancellor and Registrar, both of whom head the administration. Most ECs consist of judges, ministers, bureaucrats and academicians. Understandably, these esteemed individuals are only able to devote limited time to the university. Typically the EC meets for a few hours twice a year.

In those few hours, the EC has to, amongst other responsibilities, approve of all major decisions pertaining to employment, academics, finance and infrastructural development. Close and proper scrutiny of these decisions or of the conduct of Vice-Chancellors and Registrars therefore becomes a pragmatic impossibility. This leads to higher centralisation of powers in the hands of the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar.

Financial Matters

As of today, the average yearly fees of NLUs is more than Rs. 2 lakhs per annum and is often subjected to multiple upward revisions. If the administrators are to be believed, consistent fee-hikes are "necessary" to make ends meet. They routinely cite insufficient state support as reasons to deny students requests for basic facilities.

Further scrutiny of such claims, undertaken by student bodies, have often revealed instances of serious financial irregularities such as the one experienced in NUJS, Kolkata, where the student body exposed a financial scam three years ago which led to the dismissal of a senior administrative officer. This shows a systematic lack of financial accountability of the administration.

Role of Student Bodies

Safeguards against these administrative inefficiencies have completely failed. Vice-Chancellors have routinely ignored or bypassed even legislative safeguards, such as statutorily-mandated Review Commissions, meant to bring about accountability and transparency. In GNLU (Gandhinagar), the Vice Chancellor reportedly attempted to bury an adverse Review Commission report.

Despite his actions and criticism by the Review Commission's Report, he was granted an extension a week after the report finally surfaced on the internet. Several others have actively prevented such Review in violation of the statutorily prescribed time limit.

There are even those who have prevented the formation of a Review Commission for months even after the college Chancellor, the Chief Justice of India, signed off on it. The abject collapse of administrative checks and balances has left it upon the student bodies to undertake a higher burden and fight for basic constitutional rights such as health and safety before issues like faculty, library or classroom can even be addressed.

As long as these administrations can manage to escape all other mechanisms, some direct intervention by the student body becomes a must. Unfortunately, the lack of organised student bodies in most of these institutions has resulted in denial of basic rights to their students.

Role of Central Government

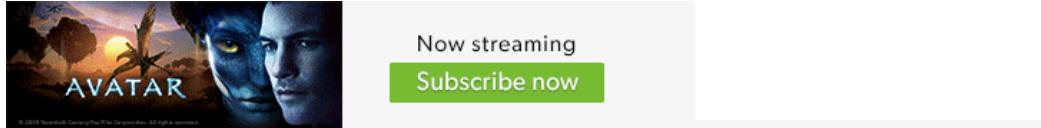

The change must also come exogenously. The Central Government must take cognisance of the abysmal state of affairs at most of these Universities and attempt to correct these systematic problems by directly engaging with the students. Being comparable to IITs, NITs, IIITs and IIMs (added earlier this year) in every respect, granting NLUs the status of 'Institutes of National Importance' (INI) must also be considered especially to tackle the perpetual lack of funds.

To that end, Hon'ble Prof. (Dr.) Sugata Bose had introduced the National Law Universities of India Bill, 2016 in the Lok Sabha in March this year, which, among other things, proposes INI status and CAG auditing for NLUs. Subsequently, elected student bodies at NLSIU, NALSAR and NUJS advocated for the same by way of a joint statement.

Administrations of NLUs have subjected students to increasingly stringent rules and regulations while simultaneously reducing facilities available to them. It appears that funds are unavailable for trivial demands such as clean washrooms while expensive cameras are installed across campus encroaching on our privacy.

Prof. N R Madhava Menon established these institutes to improve legal education and nurture a generation of "social engineers. Yet, continuous fights for basic survival and a right to decent education may leave us too drained and disillusioned to be of any use to society.
